

Treaty of Odresh

Terms

- Odresh will join Yoahatl as a non-autonomous nation under the terms described by Council Decision 9.6

- As a nonautonomous nation, Odresh will retain the following sovereign rights

- The right to retain a separate legal system and legal code from Yoahatl proper free from interference by the government of Yoahatl except in cases involving people outside Odresh
- The right to enter into trade agreements and economic relations with foreign powers regardless of their status with Yoahatl
- The right for the land of Odresh to be considered sovereign and indivisible, unable to be acquired by the government of Yoahatl without consent of the legitimate government of Odresh and the consent of the population of Odresh
- Odresh can secede at any time
- The population of Odresh is eligible for Yoahatlan citizenship

- In return for this, Odresh cedes the following rights to the government of Yoahatl

- The right to form alliances or military agreements with foreign powers except in cases where the Yoahatlan government consents
- The right to enter into military conflicts or participate in supplying nations and organizations engaged in warfare except with consent from the government of Yoahatl such as preemptively stated above
