

Merger of Vinland With the Nation of Yoahtl

Terms

- Vinland will join Yoahtl as an autonomous nation under the terms described by Council Decision 9.6

- As an autonomous nation, Vinland will retain the following sovereign rights

- The right to retain a separate legal system and legal code from Yoahtl proper free from interference by the government of Yoahtl
- The right to retain separate citizenship and residency rules from Yoahtl
- The right to enter into trade agreements and economic relations with foreign powers regardless of their status with Yoahtl
- The right to opt out of contributing men and war materiel in times of conflict
- The right for the land of Vinland to be considered sovereign and indivisible, unable to be acquired by the government of Yoahtl without consent of the legitimate government of Vinland and the consent of the population of Vinland
- The right for the designated foreign representative of Vinland to be eligible for Yoahtlan citizenship
- The foreign representative and any deputies they appoint shall be included in Yoahtlan government channels at all times
- Vinland will be allowed to retain its membership and fulfill any obligations resulting from membership in SATO and the NCA separate from the actions of Yoahtl including taking military action separate from Yoahtl
- Vinland can secede at any time

- In return for this, Vinland cedes the following rights to the government of Yoahtl

- The right to form alliances or military agreements with foreign powers except in cases where the government of Yoahtl consents such as stated above or in later situations

- The right to enter into military conflicts or participate in supplying nations and organizations engaged in warfare except with consent from the government of Yoahatl such as preemptively stated above
- The right of the government of Yoahatl to hold Vinland citizens accountable for actions which bring threat or reality of military conflict on Yoahatl and to hold them accountable within the main court system of Yoahatl as their actions have violated Vinland's autonomous status within Yoahatl by bringing both into conflict with outside powers

Signed,